Anti-Ragging Circular

This is to inform to all the students of BCA and BBA of all the three years that any activity that comes under the preview of ragging is strictly prohibited in and outside the college campus. As ragging is a criminal offence in India and is strictly prohibited by the UGC and Patliputra University, students engaged in ragging will be liable to punishment with penalties including impressment and fines. College has also formed an Anti-Ragging Cell to look into the matter and to address the complaints of ragging in the college. College is committed towards a ragging free environment in the college campus.
